The competition is organised by the National Association of Italian Reserve Officers (U.N.U.C.I.), section of Naples, with the co-operation of the Italian Army General Staff and it's included in the training activities of the Association. The participating teams will be supplied with quarters and board at the "Capone" barracks, unit seat of the Garibaldi Brigade in the Military Area of Persano (Salerno), about 80 Km from Naples with payment of the entrance fee according to the program.

A bus service has been arranged for the transport to the barracks: leaving on 9 October 2009 at 10.00 from Naples Airport, at 11.00 from the Central Station. The competition subject is the activity of a reconnoitring patrol in enemy territory, wit a series of scores to be attained by means of geographic co-ordinates (ownership of compass required).

Set out of the trials:

Briefing and check of equipment of each team.

- 1) Night landing from the sea by rubber dinghy provided with paddles
- 2) Mine-field getting over
- 3) Renascent of Sele river
- 4) Approach to the Area (about 9 Km)
- 5) Battle-training ground
- 6) Trials of hostage release and acquisition of documents at enemy command site
- 7) Preparation of check point for motor vehicles and perquisition of hostile personnel.
- 8) Quiz about Convention of Geneva and International law
- 9) Fire trials with Franchi Spas 15 mil guns
- 10) Antitank fire trials on real target
- 11) Demolition trials of defence posting
- 12) Recognition of weapons and uniforms
- 13) Disassembly of Italian Army Forces weapons
- 14) Final report.

For all the term of the trials there will be a barrage activity.

Each patrol composed of 4 elements, at least one of whom being an officer or NCO, must be sufficiently equipped for the getting over of such trials and with at least one compass.

The patrols elements can belong to Army, Navy or Air Force personnel, if only in service, Reserve units or Arm Associations.

Night viewers and GPS are not allowed. Firearms are forbidden, softair weapons are welcome.
